50. Memoriams

In fondest memory of Donald Wayne Pugh, who left us Oct. 30, 1970. They say time helps heal the hurt of a lost one, but my dear it's been eleven years now and my heart aches to tell you once again, We love you still.
Sadly missed
Mom, brother and sisters
50/10-28-1tp

In loving memory of Jackson D. Doss, Jr. who was taken from us one year ago today, October 29, 1980.
The memory of that sad night when we knew he was dead
our hearts were crushed
many tears were shed
he was called away so sudden without a last goodby
only God in Heaven knows the reason why
We love you and will never forget you
Daddy, Mama, brothers, sisters and grandparents
50/10-28-1tc

In memory of Mrs. Goldie A. Williamson who passed away November 7, 1975.
Day after day, our lives go on, then suddenly time stands still, with the loss of a loved one, through we know that it is God's will.
The tears come fast, the hurt is great and the reason we just can't see, then the Lord takes our hand, and we understand that he plans for eternity
Sadly missed by her family,
Pete, Peggy, Lisa, and Cindy
Clark, and Jeanette Clark Moore

Mt. Pleasant

Regular preaching services were held Sunday at Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church, with our pastor on duty. We had a wonderful Sunday School. The teachers were on duty and on time.
The Rev. Napier gave an inspiring sermon, "Hell is a place of everlasting fire." It gives us a chance to search ourselves before it's too late. If you are going to be a "telephonic" tell of the good news and works of God. Then this will be a better world. Prayer changes things.
The NAACP will meet here Nov. 9 at 7:30 p.m. Please don't forget.
The first Sunday in November at 3 p.m., the Rev. Napier along with the Senior Choir will be at Springfield Baptist Church in Appomattox. Come out and support your pastor.
The Men's Club of Mt. Pleasant will be celebrating their anniversary on the second Sunday in November at 3 p.m. Our pastor will be the speaker along with his chorus.
The Assembly will meet the second Thursday of each month. Come out and see what's going on. We attended the meeting in Farmville on Tuesday night. It included six counties. Mr. Donald Anderson was the special guest from Norfolk. Door prizes were awarded, a great "cookshop." Come to Galilee Church and see what they have to offer.
Mrs. Ann Franklin, one of our oldest members, fell and broke her leg. She is in Southside Community Hospital. We pray for her a speedy recovery. Whisper a prayer for the sick and shut-in. See you next week.

Local teams do well

The Forestry Judging teams of the Appomattox FFA Chapter placed second and third for the senior and ninth grade teams, respectively, in the Hub Federation Contest.
The contest, held in the Appomattox Buckingham State Forest, this year, was comprised of five different tests of skill in the area of forestry.
The winning chapter in the senior contest, from William Campbell High School, edged out Appomattox by only four points.
Senior team members included Robert Coleman, Bobby Wingfield and Cecil Jacobs.

Garden club meets

The Appomattox Garden Club met on Monday, October 26 at St. Anne's Parrish Hall. Mrs. W. Nolan Guill was the guest speaker.
Mrs. Guill's specialty is growing chrysanthemums and she spoke on "Growing and Showing Chrysanthemu m s". Mrs. Guill is a member of Bannister River Garden Club in Halifax, Va. She is a nationally accredited Flower Show Judge with a Master Certificate. Her talk was very informative and it was evident that she is a true lover of chrysanthemums and nature.
The program was followed by a business meeting.
